

Colm Kincaid, Deputy Governor (Consumer & Investor Protection), Central Bank of Ireland

Colm was appointed to the role of Deputy Governor (Consumer & Investor Protection) in August 2025. Prior to this, he held roles at the Central Bank of Ireland as Director of Enforcement, Director of Consumer Protection and Director of Securities & Markets Supervision. Before joining the Central Bank, Colm practised as a solicitor in Linklaters in London and A&L Goodbody in Dublin, specialising in financial regulation and structured finance and was also Regulatory Counsel at Merrill Lynch. Designated Public Official under the Regulation of Lobbying Act 2015.